

WASHINGTON.

"Our country, always right; but right or wrong, our country."

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1840.

OFFICE ON E STREET, IN THE SQUARE IMMEDIATELY WEST OF THE NEW POST OFFICE.

JOSEPH ETTER, EDITOR.

All communications for this paper should be addressed to the Editor.

"FOREIGNERS WILL MAKE OUR ELECTIONS A CURSE INSTEAD OF A BLESSING."—M. Van Buren.

"THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES:—MAY THEY EVER REMEMBER, THAT TO PRESERVE THEIR LIBERTIES, THEY MUST BY THEIR OWN VOTING AND THEIR OWN FIGHTING."—William H. Harrison.

"AGAINST THE INSIDIOUS WILES OF FOREIGN INFLUENCE—I CONJURE YOU TO BELIEVE ME, FELLOW CITIZENS—THE JEALOUSY OF A FREE PEOPLE OUGHT TO BE CONSTANTLY AWAKE—SINCE HISTORY AND EXPERIENCE PROVE, THAT FOREIGN INFLUENCE IS ONE OF THE MOST BANEFUL FOES OF A REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT."—Washington's Farewell Address.

"I HOPE WE MAY FIND SOME MEANS, IN FUTURE, OF SHIELDING OURSELVES FROM FOREIGN INFLUENCE, POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, OR IN WHATEVER FORM IT MAY BE ATTEMPTED. I CAN SCARCELY WITHHOLD MYSELF FROM JOINING IN THE WISH OF SILAS DEANE, THAT THERE WERE AN OCEAN OF FIRE BETWEEN THIS AND THE OLD WORLD."—Jefferson.

"Whether successful or not, succeeding generations shall know, that we understood our Rights and Liberties, and were neither afraid nor ashamed to assert or maintain them; and that we ourselves may have at least this consolation in our chains, that it was not through our neglect that this People were enslaved."—Instructions of the People of Lexington to their Representatives in the General Court of Massachusetts, 1772.

OUR CAUSE

Is gradually, but surely, spreading. Every mail we hear from, every letter we receive, brings proofs of its tenets being studied, and its principles being embraced. From among the bone and sinew of the land, our accessions principally are obtained. This is what we want;—they are the people who, when once they begin to think on a subject, never let it alone, until they see its bearings; and when once they find them good, their whole souls are enlisted in its success. We want more means at our disposal to send out a knowledge of our Association, and we will then be sure of a quick success. As it is, we are wending our way slowly and safely, and in a manner most cheering to our labors. We, therefore, say to our friends—persevere—your labors are not in vain. Let each man endeavor to enlist his friends in the cause—get them to thinking about it, and, we doubt not, their thoughts will get into the right channel.

In conversing with a very intelligent individual not long since from the West, he informed us that there was a foreigner in his State, who had boldly asserted that THIS COUNTRY SHOULD BECOME A LIMITED MONARCHY. He even went so far as to endeavor to discuss this matter publicly;—but thanks to the honesty and patriotism of our native freemen, he was stopped in his career. And, how many thousand foreigners are there now amongst us, who hold the same congenial feelings, did they dare express them. How many are there who would, did they dare attempt it, publicly hold up to an American public their reasons why this country would be more likely to prosper under the sway of a despot, than under our own hallowed form of Government! Many, aye, many there are, who have such feelings, but who dare not express them; and who would; did they think there was any chance of success, strike the blow that should again enslave us forever. These facts call aloud for our action. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Then we would advise Americans to be wary, and slumber not, until the outposts of our Institutions are well guarded from foes within and foes without; for they are all around us, even at our very hearths.

The citizens of New Orleans have taken a noble stand in the great struggle. They are determined to save our country, or die in the breach. They have nominated a ticket for Congress and the Legislature of their State, and seem sanguine of success. We doubt not they will gain it; and we believe there is virtue enough in Americans every where in this Union to do likewise, if they see the necessity for it as they do in New Orleans. Our duty is then, to pursue our course fearlessly, and warn our countrymen of their danger; and our labors will be crowned with success, and the rectitude of our cause will be our consolation, and the surety of our country's freedom the blessings of our posterity.

Louisiana.—An election for members of Congress, and members of the State Legislature, takes place in this State, on the 6th of July next.

Illinois.—The state election in this State, takes place on the 3d of August next.

Twenty-one Clergymen of the District of Columbia, have addressed a circular to the Clergy of the United States, to take up collections in aid of Colonization on the 5th of July next.

The corner stone of a new Presbyterian Church was laid on Wednesday last, by the ancient fraternity of Masons, in their usual impressive style. The identical Gavel used by the M. W. M. General George Washington, at the laying of the corner stone of the Capitol, was in use on this occasion.

AMERICAN SABBATH—FOURTH OF JULY.

1840.—We are very sorry to perceive that this day is to be desecrated in this city, (as also throughout the country,) by party celebrations. If there be a day in the year that should be sacredly kept from party strife, by Americans, it is the glorious anniversary of our deliverance from foreign chains. But, there seems to be such an enthusiasm in party strife, such a disregard for the kindlier feeling that should characterize Americans, at least on this day, that they have lost sight of their duty, and have been led astray, their patriotism having become blunted by their predilections for men, merely as partisans. How much more harmonious would it have been, and what better feelings would it not have engendered, had the turbulent waves of party strife been allayed on this day, and the Fourth of July, so glorious in our annals, been sociably and with American sentiment, celebrated in a way that all might have participated in their homage to those sires who "fought and bled," that we might enjoy the fruits of their labor, toil, and agonizing sweat. What are to be done by those who wish not to join in such conflicts? Shall they look upon these movements with pain and sorrow, and lament the scenes thus thrown before them? It will, it must be so; for, we opine, there are many, very many, who will not give their countenance to such proceedings, but who would be the first to step forward in a celebration where all could participate—a celebration where men of all parties could assemble, and meet their friends of every creed, and joyously feast together, and hail the day with thanksgiving, as becomes freemen. We should be glad if it could be so; but it will not. Parties have become so rank in their prejudices and hatred, that there seems to be a chasm between them, that they cannot approach each other. We must hope, and work, for a better state of things. In the meantime, we would invite all those opposed to party celebrations on this day, to hold a meeting, (if they wish to get up a celebration,) and make immediate arrangements to do the day the honor it merits.

CONGRESS.—The question is often asked us, when will Congress adjourn? We cannot answer, nor do we believe there is a member of either House, who can tell. The general impression is, that this greatly to be hoped for event will take place about the middle of July. But if it does the country will be left in a deplorable condition. If the Sub-Treasury bill were now through both Houses, it would take them until August to finish the other business before them. And we are sure, as they have staid thus long, the country would prefer them to stay a few weeks longer, and finish their work.

The second number of the Workingman's Advocate is received. Its usual tact and ability is displayed in the editorial department. "Original Aphorisms and Scraps" in our next paper.

Mr. Rush of the American Legation in London, and Mr. Schenly of England, arrived in this city last Saturday, each bearing despatches. It is said they related to the boundary, and that there was no doubt they were of a pacific character.

"Rain is wanted in the neighborhood of Bayou Sarah and Baton Rouge."—N. O. Pic. Well, send for the Rain King, Mr. Espy, and if he can't fix you off, why just turn a few spades of earth from the levee, and let in the Mississippi.

"An uncommon number of mad dogs have been killed this season at the North."—Ibid. What have they done with those at the South? Look out, Pic.

The following authentic account of the appearance, and disposition of the body of Washington in a marble coffin, we find in the May number of the Knickerbocker:

The coffin containing the remains of Washington was in the extreme back part of the vault; and to remove the case containing the leaden receptacle it was found necessary to put aside the coffins that were piled up between it and the doorway. After clearing a passage-way, the case, which was much decayed, (and near which was found a silver breast-plate, on which was engraved the date of his birth and death) was stripped off, and the lead of the lid was discovered to have sunk very considerably from head to foot; so much so as to form a curved line of from four to five inches in its whole length. This fractured part was turned over on the lower part of the lid, exposing to view a head and breast of large dimensions, which appeared, by the dim light of the candles, to have suffered but little from the effects of time. The eye-sockets were large and deep, and the breadth across the temples, together with the forehead, appeared of unusual size. There was no appearance of grave clothes. The chest was broad, the color was dark, and had the appearance of dried flesh and skin adhering closely to the bones. We saw no hair, nor was there any offensive odor from the body. A hand was laid upon the head, and instantly removed; the lead of the lid was restored to its place; the body, raised by six men, was carried and laid in the marble coffin, and the ponderous cover being put on, and set in cement, was sealed from our sight on Saturday, Oct. 7, 1837.

ARRIVAL OF THE U. S. SHIP LEXINGTON.—The U. S. ship Lexington, Captain John H. Clark, 98 days from the Pacific (Valparaiso) and 45 days from Rio de Janeiro, arrived at Norfolk on Tuesday, and anchored off the Naval Hospital. Left at Callao, 6th February, U. S. frigate Constitution, Com. Claxton; officers and crew all well; about to sail for Valparaiso, via Talcahuana, from thence to the Sandwich Islands. The U. S. sloop St. Louis, commander Forrest, had arrived upon the coast, and had sailed (conveying despatches) for Panama. The U. S. sloop Shark, Lt. Comdr Bigelow, had also arrived.

The Lexington has been absent nearly three years, having sailed from Boston 20th August, 1837, during which time, we learn, she has performed more actual sea service than any of our men-of-war. She has run over 56,000 miles, and has been 516 days at sea, cruising and touching at the different ports of Chili, Peru, Colombia, and Mexico, crossing the equator four several times, exposed to a variety of dangers and vicissitudes, without having lost a man by accident or casualty.—Nat. Int.

Since the first of April, 23,427 emigrants have arrived at New York. At Quebec, 9,184 more have arrived this year than in the same time last.—Nat. Int.

THE BANKRUPT BILL. we are happy to announce, has at length finally passed the Senate, though by a majority of only 2 votes—Yeas 21 to Nays 19. It has now to pass the order of the other House, and we can only say "God send it a happy deliverance." As some of our readers may be surprised at the thinness of the Senate's vote on this important measure, it may be proper to state that several Senators being under the necessity of being absent from the city to-day, they, according to Parliamentary usage, recently followed in Congress, prevailed upon members on the opposite side to pair off with them on this question.—Nat. Int.

COLUMBIAN HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—An interesting meeting of this Society took place at the City Hall last Saturday.

The Committee on Flowers reported the exhibition in the interval between the last meeting and the preceding one, by Mrs. Zantinger, of pæonia sinensis, alba flore plena.

By Mrs. Seaton: Pæonia odorata alba flore, carnation pinks, and early potatoes of the following kinds: meers, snowballs, pink-eyes, and red-skins.

By Mr. Henry Nailor: White mercur potatoes, very large and fine.

Mrs. Zantinger presented Lima Beans, just arrived from Peru, after a three months' passage. These beans were distributed among the members present.—Nat. Int.

DEATH BY DROWNING.—On Sunday last, a colored boy, belonging to Mr. Isaac Beers, of this city, while bathing in the Washington Canal, near the Four-and-a-half street bridge, got out of his depth and into a deep hole, from which he could not extricate himself, and was unfortunately drowned, after remaining in the water about half an hour before the body was recovered. Means were used in vain to resuscitate the poor boy.—Nat. Int.

Despatches received by the War Department from Brig. Gen. Atkinson announce the peaceable removal of the whole body of the Winnebago Indians, numbering about seven hundred, of the bands of the Portage from whom resistance was at one time apprehended. The presence of one thousand regulars contributed to this desirable result.

Gen. Atkinson proceeds in person to attend to the final settlement of these Indians on the land allotted to them west of the Mississippi river.—Globe.

FIRE.—Last Monday morning, about two o'clock, a fire broke out in a frame building situated near the Canal bridge, on Fourteenth street. In a short time the flames blazed out with great fury, and the alarm bells were immediately rung, which caused all the city fire companies to turn out and render timely assistance. We understand that, through the united exertions of the firemen, the flames were confined to the roof and upper story of the building. Such prompt and successful exertions on the part of our city fire companies, in the dead hour of the night, evidence an improved and improving organization which redounds greatly to their credit.—Nat. Int.

NORFOLK SILK FILATURE.—It is with pleasure we call the attention of our citizens and those of the surrounding country to the advertisement of Messrs. Wilson & Hartsborn, who have established a Filature for the reeling and spinning of Silk, and who are prepared to purchase cocoons of every quality and in any quantity, thereby affording a market at home; the want of which has deterred many from engaging in the business. An opportunity is now offered to any one heretofore engaged in the growth of the Morus Multicaulis tree to make their investment a profitable one. We wish Messrs. Wilson & Hartsborn success, and hope the establishment may be kept in continual operation.—Norfolk Beacon.

TEXAS.—More than one-half of the republic of Texas is yet unlocated public domain.

MARKET-HOUSE—FOURTH WARD.—Notice is hereby given that the Market-house in the Fourth Ward is now ready for use, and will be kept open every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, commencing the first Monday in July next. Butchers' stalls will be rented to those applying for them at the Register's Office; and the vegetable stalls will be rented to the highest bidder on Friday, the 10th day of July next, at 8 o'clock P. M. W. W. SEATON, Mayor.

TRAVELS IN SOUTHEASTERN ASIA. embracing Hindostan, Malaya, Siam, and China, with notices of numerous missionary stations, and a full account of the Burman Empire, with dissertations, tables, &c., by Howard Malcolm in two volumes, third edition. Passages in Foreign Travels, by Isaac Appleton Jewett, in 2 volumes. Also rambles in Europe, or a Tour through France, Italy, Switzerland, Great Britain, and Ireland in 1836, by F. A. Hall, in 2 vols. are for sale by W. M. MORRISON, four doors west of Brown's Hotel.
